A copy of the coach's responsibilities was handed out.

A discussion about the boys' red basketball teams being under the lead of one coach (in this case Brad Greenwell) was discussed. A decision was made to allow Brad to take over the program over the course of three years starting with the 6th grade team this year.

Season passes (all sports passes) are on sale. Families can purchase for $75 and it can be used for all St. Joe regular season games. It cannot be used for tournament games. This will be for girls' and boys' basketball and volleyball only.

There is an opening for coach of the 6th grade boys' red basketball team. Brad Greenwell will be asked if he is interested.

There is an opening for coach of the volleyball team. It will be advertised on the school website.

The opening for coach of the baseball team was filled by John Evans.

The Athletic Board will meet on the first Wednesday of the month if school is in session at 6:00 pm in Mrs. Spalding's room.

Mr. Haun let the board know that his son plays high school soccer and his sons games are on the same nights as most of the girls' basketball games in case anyone was wondering why he wasn't there.

Mr Haun reported that the Spirit of St. Joe and the Knight/Lady Knight banners are being updated next week.

Letters for the ads for the tv in the gym will be sent out.

Other business: Mr. Haun will look at the possibility of replacing the Rec League boys' and girls' basketball uniforms.

Carlene Downs gave the board an update on the Archery Team. There is an archery tournament on October 26th that St. Joe will be hosting at Bethlehem High School. All the start up equipment has been delivered. Practices will be on Tuesday at St. Joe in the cafeteria and Thursday at Bethlehem.

Mr. Haun was asked to contact Duane Hume about certain football rules regarding where students of Catholic schools are allowed to play.

Meeting adjourned at 7:05 pm.
